1. A certificate from the candidate's present school showing most recent qualifications obtained in Year 10 and Year 11 of the "English National Curriculum" or equivalent. The student must have achieved the highest possible marks on at least 70% of the subjects taken at their school. The internal evaluation system used by the candidate's school must be explained to King's College in detail.
2. Supporting documents from the candidate's current school, club, association, or the like, describing the candidate's extra-curricular activities, abilities and achievements, contribute to success in the process.
3. Applications should demonstrate the candidate's commitment to voluntary service and community work.

Public examination results should be submitted before the end of August of each academic year or immediately after publication of results.

Submitted results should be official. (IGCSE equivalent results slip (photocopies by Notary or bearing the current school stamp) for all pupils in the British Education system or official end-of-year results for pupils not currently in the British system.

Selection process

Selection Committee

All candidates' applications will be considered by a selection committee specifically set up by King's College.

Criteria

The committee will consider all aspects of the candidate's application.

A personal interview will also be required. The Committee will select a candidate based on all the data and information received and will then decide whether to make an award for 2019-2021.

Final Decision

Once a final decision has been made, successful candidates will be informed as soon as possible. For pupils in the British system, final confirmation rests on their official (IGCSE) results in August. Unsuccessful candidates will be notified in writing as soon as possible.

Important Information

Scholarships are not transferable

If in the opinion of the selection committee there are no suitable applicants, no scholarships will be awarded.

Cancellation

In the event of "force majeure" prior to the award of the scholarships, King's College reserves the right to cancel the award process. "Force majeure" is defined as any event outside the control of King's College which would make the provision of scholarships impossible.
